Click on the Select a Location (optional) drop-down box and click California
Click on the Search button to proceed to the next page
2. A List of current job openings will show.
  - On the left side of the page, you will see many options that break down job information such as: *Job Categories, US State, US City, and Jobs Posted Within a specific time range.In the Jobs Posted Within, click Last Week to see the most recent job postings.
3. Click on different job postings to see the requirements for the position.
  - Most entry level positions titles include: sales representative, administrative assistant, sales account coordinators.
  - Make sure to review all the requirements that are on the job posting.
4. Once you have found a position that closely meets your skills and experience, click Apply Now to apply online.
  - A new page will open asking for your full name, e-mail and agreement to data privacy statement. Then it will give you an online application to apply to further entry-level jobs they might have.
5. Note:
  - When setting up an online application, make sure you have all up-to-date documents (resume, cover letter, references, transcripts, etc.) saved on your computer, e-mail and/or USB drive so you can access it for your application.
  - Apply to the postings as soon as possible, since there are no closing dates to any of the postings that are listed.
  - Most positions may not fit your current skills and experience now, but you can use a job description that you are interested in as reference to what you would like to achieve as you receive further training and/or education in this specific industry.
